

Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

As a Business Associate of the FL Dept. of Children and Families, Partnership for Strong Families has rights and responsibilities regarding the Protected Health Information of clients. This Notice describes how health information about our clients may be used and disclosed and how our clients can get access to this information. This Notice applies to Partnership for Strong Families, their Business Associates and subcontractors. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights	You have the right to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record • Correct your paper or electronic medical record • Request confidential communication • Ask us to limit the information we share • Choose someone to act for you • Receive breach notifications • Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information • Get a copy of this Privacy Notice • File a complaint if you believe your Privacy Rights have been violated 	See pages 2 & 3 for more information on these rights and how to exercise them.
Your Choices	You have some choice in the way that we use and share information as we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tell family and friends about your condition • Provide disaster relief • Include you in a directory (if applicable) • Provide behavioral health care • Market our service and sell your information • Raise Funds 	See pages 3 & 4 for more information on these choices and how to exercise them.
Our Uses and Disclosures	We may use and share your information as we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Treat you • Run our organization • Bill for services • Work with our contracted Business Associates and subcontractors • Help with public health and/or public safety issues • Do research • Comply with the law • Respond to organ and tissue donation requests • Respond to lawsuits and legal actions • Work with a medical examiner or funeral director • Address workers' compensation, health oversight agencies, law enforcement, and other government requests • Government agencies providing benefits or services 	See pages 4 & 5 for more information on use & disclosure.

WHAT IS PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI)? Protected Health Information (PHI) is information that would enable a person reading or hearing it to identify you individually that relates to:

- your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition;
- the provision of health care to you;
- the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care or services to you; or
- your Genetic information

Your Rights	When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.
Get an electronic or paper copy of your health record	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You, or your designee, can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Your request must be in writing to the program office or service provider that maintains your records. • We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee. • We are not required to allow you to see or copy psychotherapy notes, information prepared for use in legal actions or proceedings, or where access is prohibited by law.
Ask us to correct mistakes in your health record	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Your request must be in writing to the program office or service provider that maintains your records. • We may say "no" to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Request a specific method for confidential communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, if you are an outpatient client, you could request we contact you at your workplace or via email) or send mail to a different address. Your request must be in writing to the program office or service provider that maintains your records. • We may say "no" to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Ask us to limit what we use or share	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask us not to use or share certain health information. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. • You can ask us not to share certain health information with family members. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. • These requests must be in writing to the program office or service provider that maintains your records.
Choose someone to act for you	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. Your request must be in writing to the program office or service provider that maintains your records. • We make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
Receive breach notifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will receive notification if there is a breach of your unsecured protected health information (PHI).

Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

Get a list of those with whom we've shared your protected health information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask for a list (Accounting of Disclosures) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. Your request must be in writing to the program office or service provider that maintains your records. • We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one Accounting of Disclosures per year for free but we may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within twelve months.
Get a copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask for a paper copy of this Notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the Notice electronically. Please contact the office, facility or program where you receive services and we will provide you with a paper copy promptly. • You may also view and download a copy of this Notice at: http://www.pfsf.org/forms/
File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by sending a letter to: Complaints Officer, Program Quality & Contract Management Partnership for Strong Families 5950 NW 1st Place Suite A, Gainesville FL 32607 Or you can file a complaint with the Florida Department of Children and Families, Office of Civil Rights, HIPAA Privacy Officer, 1317 Winewood Boulevard, Building 1, Room 110, Tallahassee FL 32399-0700, Tel. 850-487-1901 Fax 850-921-8470 Or you can file a complaint with the US Dept of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights 200 Independence Avenue SW, Washington DC 20201 Or by calling 1-877-696-6775, or at www.hhs.gov/ocr//privacy/hipaa/complaints/ • We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
Your Choices	For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, please communicate to us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.
In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care. • Share information in a disaster relief situation. (If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest.) • We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marketing purposes. • Sale of your information. • Most sharing of psychotherapy notes.
In the case of fundraising:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.
Our Uses and Disclosures	How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways. Please note that not all types of uses and disclosures can be described or listed in this Notice.
Treat you	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you and coordinate services you may need. Example: A doctor performing a clinical evaluation may talk another doctor about your overall health condition.
Run our organization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We can use and share your health information to run our organization, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.
Bill for your services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans and other entities. Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.
Work with our contracted Business Associates and Subcontractors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Partnership for Strong Families contracts with the Department of Children and Families, other agencies, and businesses to carry out some of the services for which we are responsible. Examples would include case management agencies and behavioral treatment centers.
How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in the course of investigations, determining eligibility, providing care, services or other benefits, and in other ways— usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers.index.html
Help with public health and safety issues	We can share health information about you for certain situations such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preventing disease • Helping with product recalls • Reporting adverse reactions to medications • Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence • Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety
Do research	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We can use or share your information for health research.

Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

Comply with the law	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.
Respond to organ and tissue donation requests	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
Respond to lawsuits and legal actions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.
Work with a medical examiner or funeral director	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.
Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests	We can use or share health information about you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> For workers' compensation claims For law enforcement purposes, with a law enforcement official, or correctional institutions With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services
Government agencies providing benefits or services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We can share your health information with other government agencies or programs that provide similar services or benefits to you if the release is necessary to coordinate the delivery of your services or benefits, or improves our ability to administer or manage the program.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information (PHI).
 - We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your PHI.
 - We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this Notice and give you a copy of it.
 - We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.
- For more information see www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html

Changes to the Terms of this Notice

We can change the terms of this Notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new Notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our website at: <http://www.pfsf.org/forms/>

Partnership for Strong Families Privacy Officer

Privacy Officer, Information Technology Department, Partnership for Strong Families,
5950 NW 1st Place Suite A, Gainesville FL 32607

Effective: 09/13/2016

Acknowledgement of Receipt and Review of the Child and Family Handbook

Case Name: _____

Instructions: Please read this page closely, ask your Family Care Counselor to answer any questions you may have about this handbook or Partnership for Strong Families and then sign and date on the line at the bottom of this page. We need to make sure that you have been given this handbook and that you understand all of your rights and responsibilities before you and PSF begin working together to achieve stability for you and your children. If you have any questions after reading this information, please ask your Family Care Counselor or call (352) 244-1500.

Acknowledgement: I have received the Partnership for Strong Families Child and Family Handbook including the PSF Notice of Privacy Practices. I have had a chance to go over it with my Family Care Counselor and have received answers to any questions that I had. I understand how Partnership for Strong Families will be working to help my family and me; how Family Team Conferences work; what my Family Team is all about; how to make a complaint and how my complaint will be handled.

Family Signatures:

_____	_____	_____
Client Signature	Client Name	Date

_____	_____	_____
Client Signature	Client Name	Date

Family Care Counselor Signature:

_____	_____	_____
Signature	Name	Date