UF College of Pharmacy presents . . .

GatoRx
Community Care Fair

Everyone is welcome! Bring your family, friends, and neighbors!

This event reflects our commitment to improving community health, expanding access to essential services, and supporting residents who are uninsured or under-resourced.

Saturday, March 28, 2026
10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Martin Luther King Jr. Multipurpose Center
1028 Northeast 14th Street
Gainesville, FL 32601

Health & Wellness
- FREE Food Distribution
- Health Screenings
- Medication Reviews
(Bring a list of your current medications)
- Health Insurance Information

Family & Community Resources
- Pregnancy and Child Care Information
- Veteran Resources
- Mental Health Resources

Kids' Activities
- Local Summer Camps Information
- Face Painting for Kids!

Fitness & Safety Sessions
- CPR Classes
- Zumba Classes
All services are free and open to the community.

Organizations interested in participating can contact us at CommunityEngagement@cop.ufl.edu

UF | College of Pharmacy
Office of Student Success, Wellness, and Community Engagement
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

CHILDREN'S TRUST
OF ALACHUA COUNTY

Gainesville Community Reinvestment Area

City of Gainesville