Bookmobile Services

The Alachua County Library District's bookmobile service brings the joy of reading and access to library resources directly to communities across the region. The mobile library will visit various locations and community centers, offering a wide selection of books, audiobooks, and digital materials for all ages. With staff on hand to assist with borrowing and library card registration, the bookmobile is a convenient and accessible resource for those who have difficulty visiting the library. The service helps ensure that all Alachua County residents have equal access to library materials, no matter their location.
